² Internal Revenue Code Section 1035 and associated rules are complex in nature. The policy owner may incur surrender charges from the previous policy, be subject to new sales and surrender charges and other limitations with the new policy. It is highly recommended that the policy owner consult a tax advisor prior to exchanging a policy.

³ Subject to the policy's terms and conditions.

⁴ A change in the policy will not be permitted if the change would result in the policy not meeting the definition of life insurance under Section 7702 of the Internal Revenue Code. The policy owner should consult a tax advisor to determine the effect of these provisions.

⁵ The reduction in specified amount will be subject to the same guidelines and restrictions as outlined in the policy form and resulting death benefit amount must be no less than $90,000.

⁶ Except in Florida where internal rollover money is not protected from premium load.

⁷ Policy loans and partial withdrawals will reduce the death benefit and cash value and could reduce the duration of coverage. Partial withdrawals may be taxed as regular earnings. The policy owner should consult a tax advisor to determine the effect of these provisions.

⁸ See the riders for complete details. Not all riders are available in all states. There may be a charge for each rider selected. Adding or deleting riders and increasing or decreasing coverage under existing riders can have tax consequences. Policy owners should consult a tax advisor prior to exchanging their policy.

⁹ IRS caps the maximum daily rate each year. Subsequent years may be higher.

¹⁰ Set so that someone with a 100% Basis that initiates the guaranteed benefit at age 85 with a Withdrawal Benefit Factor of 1 can have a $500 payment.

Important Consumer Disclosures Regarding Accelerated Benefit Riders

An Accelerated Death Benefit Rider (ABR) is not a replacement for Long Term Care Insurance (LTCI). It is a life insurance benefit that gives you the option to accelerate some of the death benefit in the event the insured meets the criteria for a qualifying event described in the policy. The rider does not provide long-term care insurance subject to California insurance law, is not a California Partnership for Long-Term Care program policy. The policy is not a Medicare supplement.

ABRs and LTCI provide different types of benefits. An ABR allows the insured to access a portion of the life insurance policy's death benefit while living. ABR payments are unrestricted and may be used for any purpose. LTCI provides reimbursement for necessary care received due to the inability to perform activities of daily living or cognitive impairment. LTCI coverage may include reimbursement for the cost of a nursing home, assisted living, home health care, homemaker services, adult day care, hospice services or respite care for the primary caretaker and the benefits may be conditioned on certain requirements or meeting an elimination period or limited by type of service, the number of days or a maximum dollar limit. Some ABRs and all LTCI are conditioned upon the insured not being able to perform two or more of the activities of daily living or being cognitively impaired.

This ABR pays proceeds that are intended to qualify for favorable tax treatment under section 101(g) of the Federal Internal Revenue Code. The federal, state, or local tax consequences resulting from payment of an ABR will depend on the specific facts and circumstances, and consequently advice and guidance should be obtained from a personal tax advisor prior to the receipt of any payments. ABR payments may affect eligibility for, or amounts of, Medicaid or other benefits provided by federal, state, or local government. Death benefits and policy values, such as cash values, premium payments and cost of insurance charges if applicable, will be reduced if an ABR payment is made. ABR payments may be limited by the contract or by outstanding policy loans.

California residents should be provided the "California Resident Supplemental Information" flyer on the Accelerated Access Solution (AGLC108547).
